OBSERVATION CONSENT

NORTH SHORE SUPPORTED CHILD DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (NSSCDP) requires written consent from the parent or guardian in order for the Consultant to:

- Observe your child in the child care program
- Assist the child care staff in identifying program goals and in developing appropriate program strategies for your child;
- Share program strategies with the child care providers regarding your child

Please complete the following information and return it to the child care centre. It will be given to the consultant prior to her observation of your child. The NSSCDP Consultant will contact the family following the observation to review the information and follow-up as necessary.
